W. Mulliner, Esq.,
109 East 56th Street,
New York City.

Dear Mr. Mulliner:-

On Mr. Wood's return I took up with him the question of the location of our collection of English coins, and now beg to advise that I shall be able to show them to you whenever you can come. Owing to the cramped storage quarters, our collection is in two places very much separated. Our caretaker tells me that he found for you the case on the balcony which contained some of the Society's pieces. There are others in the vault, and we have at present plus the Durkee loan, another very important loan containing many rare pieces, which I am sure you would enjoy examining.

If you will telephone me when you plan to come, you will thereby be more certain of being able to obtain your object. I hope you may be able to do this very soon.

Yours very truly,

Secretary.
